

PMI UGANDA : CAPE TOWN EXPERIENCE

9–19 September 2026

Summit days, city discoveries and three unforgettable ways to experience the Western Cape.

AT A GLANCE

Day	Date	Proposed Itinerary	Cost ZAR	Cost USD
Wed	9	Arrival	-	-
Thu	10	Arrival / Orientation	-	-
Fri	11	City Exploration/ Shopping/Robben Island	660,00	40,00
Sat	12	Hop on Hop off Bus Tour/ Table Mt/ Canal Tour/ Aquarium OR Shopping	1 460,00	90,00
Sun	13	Full Day Cape Point Tour - with Boulders Beach	1 230,00	77,00
Mon	14	PMI Summit	-	-
Tue	15	PMI Summit	-	-
Wed	16	PMI Uganda Tour: PLEASE SELECT ONE	-	-
Thu	17	Hop on Hop off Bus Tour/ Table Mt/ Canal Tour/ Aquarium OR Shopping	1 460,00	90,00
Fri	18	Full Day Cape Point Tour - with Boulders Beach	1 230,00	77,00
Sat	19	SHOPPING/ departure/ Robben Island	660,00	40,00

10 SEPTEMBER

Welcome to the Mother City

Arrival & Orientation

Arrive in Cape Town, where you will be welcomed by your drivers, PMI South Africa volunteers and the Peku Peku Travel Services team.

Transfer to your hotel, check in, settle down and find your bearings. You have arrived in a city of mountains and ocean, wonderful food, warm people, music, colour and adventure.

Welcome to Cape Town. Let the fun begin.

11 SEPTEMBER

History, City & Shopping

Take it easy. Find your Cape Town.

Today is deliberately relaxed, allowing you to explore at your own pace.

For those interested in South Africa's extraordinary history, take the ferry across Table Bay to Robben Island, where Nelson Mandela spent 18 of his 27 years in prison.

Alternatively, wander through the inner city, browse the shops, discover cafés and local markets, or spend the afternoon exploring the V&A Waterfront.

Today's possibilities: Robben Island | Inner-City Exploration | Shopping | V&A Waterfront

From ZAR 660 | USD 40 per person

12 SEPTEMBER

Cape Town From Every Angle

Mountain. City. Canal. Ocean.

Today gives you a wider view of Cape Town.

Use the Hop-On Hop-Off Bus to move easily between some of the city's best-known sights. Head up Table Mountain for one of Africa's great city views, cruise the canals around the Waterfront, or discover the underwater world at the Two Oceans Aquarium.

Along the way, listen for music around Greenmarket Square, the Company's Garden and the Waterfront. Stop. Explore. Dance if the mood takes you. Talk to artists. Find a café.

This is a day to feel the pulse of Cape Town rather than simply see it.

Your day can include: Hop-On Hop-Off Bus | Table Mountain | Canal Cruise | Two Oceans Aquarium | Shopping

ZAR 1,460 | USD 90 per person

13 SEPTEMBER

The Cape Peninsula

One spectacular coastline. One unforgettable day.

Leave the city behind for one of Cape Town's most beautiful journeys.

Travel along the dramatic Cape Peninsula to Cape Point and the Cape of Good Hope, where mountains, ocean and rugged coastline create some of the region's most memorable scenery.

Continue to Boulders Beach to see its famous colony of African penguins. Ocean. Mountains. Penguins. Coastal villages. Spectacular viewpoints.

This is one of Cape Town's essential experiences.

ZAR 1,230 | USD 77 per person

14 & 15 SEPTEMBER

PMI Global Summit

Two days of ideas, connections and Summit energy.

These days belong to PMI. Learn. Connect. Exchange ideas. Meet colleagues from around the world — and enjoy being part of the global project management community in Cape Town.

16 SEPTEMBER

CHOOSE YOUR WESTERN CAPE

Three experiences. Three completely different sides of the destination.

After two days of Summit sessions, today is about getting out, having fun and experiencing the Western Cape. Choose the adventure that speaks to you.

OPTION 1 | DARLING & THE WEST COAST

THE TASTE OF THE WESTERN CAPE

Wine • Braai • Country Villages • Coast • Landscapes

ZAR 2,500 | USD 150 per person | Approximately 7–8 hours

If you want to experience something that feels distinctly South African, this is our pick.

Leave central Cape Town behind and head towards the small towns, farms and wide-open landscapes of the West Coast. September is springtime in the Cape, and if nature cooperates, the famous Cape Floral Kingdom may be putting on its annual show.

Expect wine tasting, beautiful countryside, a proper South African braai, charming Cape villages and the wonderful sense of space that appears once you leave the city behind.

Finish towards the Atlantic at Melkbosstrand or Big Bay, with ocean air, beach views and Table Mountain providing one final spectacular backdrop.

WHY CHOOSE THIS? Because you want a little bit of everything: wine, food, countryside, flowers, villages, ocean and a taste of everyday Western Cape life. OUR TOP PICK FOR THE GROUP.

OPTION 2 | FRANSCHHOEK WINE TRAM

SIP. RIDE. EXPLORE. REPEAT.

Vineyards • Wine Estates • Mountains • Food • Franschhoek

ZAR 1,000 | USD 60 per person | Full day

Welcome to one of the most beautiful wine valleys in South Africa.

The Franschhoek Wine Tram turns wine tasting into an adventure of its own. Travel between celebrated estates by tram and open-air tram-bus, hopping off wherever temptation strikes.

Taste. Explore. Have lunch. Find another vineyard. Stay a little longer somewhere beautiful. Franschhoek combines magnificent mountain scenery, historic Cape Dutch architecture, exceptional restaurants and some of South Africa's best-known wine estates.

It is elegant, relaxed and wonderfully sociable. Wine tastings and lunch are not included and are payable directly.

WHY CHOOSE THIS? Because your perfect day involves beautiful scenery, excellent wine, good food and absolutely no need to rush.

OPTION 3 | ATLANTIS DUNES

TURN UP THE ADRENALINE

Quad Bikes • Sandboarding • Dunes • Wine • Atlantic Views

ZAR 2,100 | USD 130 per person | Half day

This one is for the adventurers.

The brilliant white dunes of Atlantis create one of the Western Cape's most extraordinary natural playgrounds — enormous sweeps of sand with the Atlantic coastline and Table Mountain in the distance.

Climb aboard a quad bike. Race across the dunes. Try sandboarding. Laugh. Get sandy. Take far too many photographs.

Then slow things down with a wine tasting and toast an afternoon very well spent. This is energetic, exhilarating and ridiculously photogenic.

WHY CHOOSE THIS? Because sitting quietly on a tour bus was never really your idea of fun. Come ready to play.

17 SEPTEMBER

Cape Town From Every Angle

Second departure — for those who missed 12 September

If you arrived later, were busy elsewhere, or simply didn't manage to fit everything in the first time, today gives you another opportunity to enjoy this Cape Town favourite.

Explore the city aboard the Hop-On Hop-Off Bus, head up Table Mountain, cruise the Waterfront canals, visit the Two Oceans Aquarium, or use the day for shopping and independent exploration.

There is no need to miss out simply because your Cape Town schedule looked a little different.

Your day can include: Hop-On Hop-Off Bus | Table Mountain | Canal Cruise | Two Oceans Aquarium | Shopping

ZAR 1,460 | USD 90 per person

18 SEPTEMBER

The Cape Peninsula

Second departure — for those who missed 13 September

For guests who did not join the first Cape Peninsula tour, this is your second opportunity to experience one of the most beautiful days out from Cape Town.

Journey to Cape Point and the Cape of Good Hope, travel through spectacular coastal scenery and visit the African penguin colony at Boulders Beach.

If this is your first visit to Cape Town, this is one experience we would strongly encourage you not to miss.

ZAR 2,200 | USD 135 per person

19 SEPTEMBER

Last-Minute Cape Town

Shop. Explore. Depart.

One last opportunity to squeeze a little more Cape Town into your suitcase.

Depending on your flight time, use the morning for last-minute shopping, return to the V&A Waterfront, explore the city or visit Robben Island if you haven't already done so.

Then it is time to say goodbye to Cape Town — hopefully with considerably heavier luggage.

From ZAR 660 | USD 40 per person

WHERE TO SHOP

Cape Town shopping ranges from luxury international brands to independent African designers, local crafts, outlet bargains and sprawling malls. The only question is: how much room did you leave in your suitcase?

ST GEORGE'S MALL | CITY CENTRE

Best for: Exploring while you shop

An easy pedestrianised stretch through central Cape Town. Wander between shops, cafés, street traders and historic city buildings. Come here when you want shopping to be part of exploring the city rather than the entire purpose of your day.

KLOOF STREET | BOUTIQUES & LOCAL STYLE

Best for: Independent finds

For a more intimate, upmarket experience, head towards Kloof Street and its surrounding neighbourhood. Expect boutiques, interesting local brands, cafés, restaurants and a more distinctly Cape Town feel.

V&A WATERFRONT | EASY & EVERYTHING

Best for: Convenience

This will practically become your backyard. The Waterfront combines shopping, restaurants, entertainment and spectacular harbour views, with everything from international luxury labels to familiar high-street brands and South African designers. Whatever your budget, you should find something here.

CANAL WALK | SERIOUS SHOPPING

Best for: Choice — lots of it

If shopping is the mission rather than a side activity, give Canal Walk some time. With hundreds of stores across an enormous shopping centre, this is not a quick browse. Wear comfortable shoes. Bring your wallet. Allow several hours. Particularly recommended for accompanying guests who are not attending the conference.

ACCESS PARK | THE BARGAIN HUNT

Best for: Outlets & end-of-line finds

This one requires a little more effort — but bargain hunters may find it worthwhile. Access Park is known for factory and outlet stores, end-of-line merchandise and discounted finds. It is outside the immediate city centre, so allow enough time and let us help you organise transport. Patience helps. Comfortable shoes help more. A good bargain is the reward.